TRIBUTE TO VETERANS ON MEMORIAL DAY

HON. DANIEL E. LUNGREN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 25, 2006

Mr. DANIEL E. LUNGREN of California. Mr. Speaker, Memorial Day weekend offers many Americans the opportunity to spend much needed time with friends and family, as well as a break from the routine and hustle and bustle of everyday life. This weekend, as we gather for cookouts, take advantage of holiday sales and welcome the arrival of summer, we should refocus our attention and recognize the day's true purpose. This is a national day of thanks, remembrance, and tribute.

Thanks for the gift of safety offered by our Nation's veterans. Remembrance for those who have fought and died for our freedom. And tribute to the men and women whose service in our armed forces has secured America's future.

Set aside as a yearly reminder to be proud of the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines who have accepted our security as their duty, Memorial Day is a unique celebration of both life and death. Recognized by all Americans, regardless of race, religion, or ethnicity, Memorial Day is a national holiday dedicated to celebrating the lives of our fallen soldiers by honoring their memory.

Throughout our history, we have met and overcome each threat to our sovereignty and way of life with dignity. While our forces overseas and at home are engaged in a Global War on Terror, this Memorial Day is all made the more poignant by the nature of our enemy. Islamo-fascists committed to the destruction of our Nation and our way of life should clearly remind all Americans that it is our solemn duty to honor the brave men and women in uniform who are fighting to secure the future of American generations. Through their sacrifice, Americans yet unborn will know greater peace, prosperity, and hope.

Giving what President Lincoln called the last full measure of devotion, the sacrifice of America's armed forces has secured more than two centuries of liberty. Today, we honor those who have given their lives so our freedom could endure. Our commitment to the men and women of our Armed Forces should reflect their dedication to us all.

JEWISH AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 25, 2006

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to thank Representative Debbie Wasserman Schultz for her hard work on behalf recognizing Mayas Jewish American Heritage month and to express my gratitude to the President for his proclamation making May Jewish American Heritage Month.

After the burning of the Second Temple and the final dispersion of the Jews from Zion, people of Jewish heritage have settled in every corner of the world. There are Jews in China, in India, in Mexico, in Greece. While Hitler almost murdered all the Jews of Europe, he did not entirely succeed.

Because of the moral values of this country we put our entire nation into the fight against the Nazi's in World War II. What is so remarkable about the fact that the United States fought so fiercely and so bravely in World War II is that they did so to save the world. That desire arose from the nation's character, which is an amalgam of the religious heritage of its people—including its Jewish people.

Today I think about the Jewish soldiers in World War II who fought in the WWII not even knowing of the death camps and the ovens. I think of the men who risked their lives every day in the mud of France and the fields of Belgium because they knew what was spreading and taking over Europe was immoral. When Eisenhower's troops first came upon a death camp, he made the camp guards and the German villagers who had lived in the green fields and gardens around the camp come to view the bodies and to bury them. The message was clear: Americans find what you have done here and you villagers have tolerated here to be an immense crime, an unimaginable crime.

The greatness of our people is their character. Jewish people have brought a lot to the making of that character. Jews have known that the values in the Five Books of Moses are universal and throughout two thousand years of Diaspora brought their values with them to the shores of all the countries where they settled including America.

Judaism is a religion and a value system. No one who is not a Jew is considered less a person by a Jew. No stranger can be left without shelter, no hungry man without bread.

I could not help but notice in the Save Darfur Coalition and other grass roots organizations working so hard to stop the genocide in Darfur that many Jewish organizations are involved in the grass roots efforts. Among them are the American World Jewish Congress, The American Jewish Committee, Jews against Genocide Religious Action Center for Reform Judaism. I have received letters from children in Jewish schools asking me to help the people of Darfur. Jewish people have a special understanding about genocide. The parents of these children who write to me may have lost grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins. But they also know they can write to their congressman and their children can write and ask for help for these people so far away who are in desperate trouble as their relatives once were.

One of the characteristics I most admire is the activism many of the Jewish people engage in. That activism has meant a great deal to the Civil Rights movement. I also admire the way Jews have contributed to the "personality" of New York. As a New Yorker, I feel especially lucky because I have learned some Yiddish, some great jokes and have met some truly amazing people who love books, culture, art and life. I'm glad for the Jewish heritage I experience in my district every day I am at home.

I say to Jewish Americans today: Congratulations and Mazol Tov!

IN HONOR OF THE 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SANTA CRUZ SURFING MUSEUM

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 25, 2006

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the great role that the Santa Cruz County coastline and its surfers have played in the history of the great sport of surfing.

In 1885, three Hawaiian princes visited the city of Santa Cruz and rode the waves at the mouth of the San Lorenzo River on redwood surfboards shaped at a nearby lumber yard.

This was the first recorded instance of surfing on the U.S. mainland in modern history. By 1936, Santa Cruz had its own surfing club, one of the first outside of Hawaii. With the development of new surfboard technologies in the 1950s and 1960s and the wetsuit by Santa Cruz's own Jack O'Neill, the sport spread across the U.S. and the globe. Surfing is now deeply embedded in American popular culture.

Enjoyed by millions of people around the world, surfing is perhaps the most widespread American sporting export. Surfing is hugely popular in such far flung places as Australia, Brazil, Europe, and even Israel. While the birthplace of surfing is Hawaii, the spread of the sport began through its popularity in Santa Cruz. Outside of Hawaii, no place on earth has a deeper history in the modern revival of surfing than our little coastal community of Santa Cruz.

Due to this rich history, Santa Cruz established the world's first surfing museum in May of 1986. Over the past 20 years, the museum has become a symbol of the local and the worldwide surfing community. Just as the Monterey Peninsula is home to the Steamer Lane of Golf, Pebble Beach, so Santa Cruz is home to the Pebble Beach of surfing, Steamer Lane. Though it should be noted that the only 'greens fees' at Steamer Lane are cold water and heavy crowds.

Though another California town recently secured the trademark rights to "Surf City", the long history of surfing in Santa Cruz is proof enough that Santa Cruz is the heart and soul of surfing, and the foundation upon which it continues to ride.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 25, 2006

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the tremendous sacrifice and bravery of the countless men and women who have fallen in service to this great country. This Memorial Day, let us stop to remember all of the American service men and women who have answered the call to defend our nation, many making that ultimate sacrifice for the peace and preservation of our union.

Since our country's founding, each generation has met the challenge of protecting our freedoms and way of life. Through the centuries, over 1.2 million brave men and women have given their lives for our nation. This final sacrifice was not only borne by those brave Americans who died, but also by their families and loved ones who personally suffered the loss of these heroes. Our hearts go out to those who have lost loved ones in the service of America.

Today, our country is again engaged in battle. Fighting to maintain peace and security across the globe, American soldiers in Iraq, Afghanistan and other places around the world continue to make the ultimate sacrifice to ensure freedom and democracy. As the war on terror continues, Americans must honor the brave men and women who gave their lives for the protection of this nation and the hope of peace.

This Memorial Day I pay tribute to all of the soldiers who have fallen in service to our great nation and the immeasurable sacrifices they have made defending freedom and democracy throughout the world. It is with a humble heart and proud spirit that I honor the lives of America's fallen soldiers and remember with admiration their patriotism and dedication to our country in the face of adversity. Let us never forget their sacrifices.

HON. RAÚL M. GRIJALVA

Mr. GRIJALVA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an outstanding community leader, Mrs. Judith Bobbitt, Somerton Elementary School District's Superintendent. She will retire this year from a lifetime commitment to education as a school administrator.

Mrs. Bobbitt's dedication to serving students and encouraging them to become contributing citizens of the State of Arizona and our great nation is remarkable. Her efforts to improve the State's funding of school construction frequently found her testifying at the Arizona State Legislature addressing equity issues.

She established and founded the South Yuma County Adult Education Consortium and made the Somerton District a leader in Adult Literacy. Under her leadership, she developed the Migrant Even Start Program in Somerton and worked with numerous community-based agencies to promote lifelong learning.
